

Title: “Americano, a contemporary vision of our continent.”

Subhead: Concordia University’s Faculty and students, as well as Latino communities in Montreal are welcome to attend this free event.

Blurb: Carlos Ferrand, a Peruvian-Canadian filmmaker of Americano will travel with the public to rediscover our present continent.

Introduction and event description: “Americano, a contemporary vision of our continent” with the participation of the filmmaker Carlos Ferrand in order to communicate his research on different nations of this continent. It will be appropriate to reach such an audience -academic and public-, to discuss directly with the active participation of our Concordian’ students and different Canadian, Peruvian and Latin American communities in Montreal.

When: Thursday, March 12, 2015, 18:00 – 21:00

Where: Universidad Concordia, 1455 de Boulevard Maisonneuve Oeste, local H 765, Montreal. Access: Metro Guy-Concordia.

Sponsors: General Consulate of Peru in Montreal, CMLL & Hispanic Association of Undergraduate Students (HAUS) from Concordia University, Dr. Edward Chirito & Promotions ASK (Promask).

Information: Carlos Ferrand, cineasta canadiense de origen peruano, director del documental Americano (2007) -que presentaremos conjuntamente en la Universidad Concordia, el 12 de marzo 2015-, y de Cimarrones (1982), acaba de ganar la beca de carrera en cinema Michel Brault del Conseil des arts et des lettres du Québec (CALQ), para dedicarse al proyecto «I3», un film ensayo cinematográfico sobre el exilio parisino del filósofo Walter Benjamin.

Véase por favor la entrevista siguiente

<http://www.lafabriqueculturelle.tv/capsules/3599/carlos-ferrand>

Contacts: Lady Rojas Benavente, Lady.rojas@concordia.ca

